Biography for: Joe Fafard

JOE FAFARD

Joseph Yvon Fafard was born September 2, 1942, in Ste. Marthe, Saskatchewan. He attended the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg (B.F.A. 1966); Pennsylvania State University (M.F.A. 1968). He was an instructor in sculpture at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus from 1968 to 1974 and a visiting lecturer in sculpture, University of California at Davis, winter semester 1980-81.

He is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Saskatchewan Order of Merit in 2002, and the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada Award in 1987. In 1981, he was awarded the designation of Officer to the Order of Canada, denoting an achievement of outstanding citizenship and service to both Canada and to the international community. From 1971 to 1984, Fafard lived in Pense, Saskatchewan, moving thereafter to Regina to continue his work. In 1985, he opened the foundry Julienne Atelier Inc. in Pense (named after his mother). Since 1999, Joe has made his home on an acreage outside Regina, where he has also built his studio. His work is exhibited and extensively collected throughout Canada, the United States and abroad.
